Because he smoked a cigarette on the school grounds three days before graduation, a Malden high school honor student was barred from receiving his diploma with his classmates, it was disclosed today.

At the same time, dissension in the school committee itself, dating from a week-end discussion of whether girl pupils could wear ankle socks and whether an undergraduate play was indecent flamed higher as one member charged the body was run by "a dictator and two rubber stamps."

Thornton Jenkins, high school principal, refused to permit Paul Tolstrup, 17, of Salem street, to attend the graduation exercises yesterday afternoon.

DELAVAN, Ill., June 10—A large airplane crashed on a farm north of here today, killing eight passengers, shortly before the army air corps at Rantoul, Ill., reported a bomber carrying three officers and five enlisted men was missing on a flight to Denver, Colo.

The ship was so badly damaged farmers reported inability to identify it immediately.

Chanute Airfield at Rantoul, reported the three officers in the missing bomber were Capt. Richard Reeves, Lieut. Norman H. Ives and a third man named Langhen, whose rank and first name were not immediately learned.

The ship crashed during a storm. A woman witness said lightning seemed to tear the wings off the aircraft.

Laura Youle, living on a farm near Delavan, said she heard the plane overhead just as a storm broke.

"There was a flash of lightning and a loud crash," Miss Youle said. "I think lightning hit the ship. At any rate we saw debris flying in the air. Then a blaze lit up the sky as we heard an explosion."

"My brother, Carey Youle, and some farmhands rushed to the spot where they saw the ship crash."

"I ran out also and saw bodies lying all around the ship. The wings of the plane were smashed and everything seemed to be torn apart."

"Some of the bodies seemed to have parachutes attached to them. The parachutes were unopened. At least one body was still in the ship."

"I was unable to tell whether the bodies were those of men or women. Because the wings and fuselage were smashed, I was unable to tell the ownership of the plane."

Britain to Pay, But--

By WILLIAM HILLMAN

(Copyright, 1938, by International News Service)

LONDON, June 10—

The British government is preparing to make a new offer to settle its war debt to the United States, it was learned today.

This offer involves the payment of the principal from which payments of interest and principal made to date will be deducted.

On instructions from Prime Minister Chamberlain, British treasury experts are working out a scheme providing for immediate repayment of about $200,000,000 annually over a short period of years, the latter to depend on the final sum agreed upon, but not exceeding ten years.

LINK TO TREATY

This war debt repayment plan will be tied up with the proposed Anglo-American trade treaty, according to the best British authorities. Settlement of the debt is one of the principal reasons for the delay in trade negotiations, it was learned despite the utmost secrecy.

Britain's debt to the United States, under the new plan, would be repaid by a combination of four methods, two of which provide for special currency advantages and trade concessions for American goods in British Empire markets, as well as gold repayments and proceeds from a loan to be raised in the United States.

WIFE SLATE CLEAN

To those dominion representations Prime Minister Chamberlain pointed out that he is willing to wipe the slate clean if the dominions make such concessions as tokens for their own unpaid war debts to the British government.

Immediately Australia's chief delegate to London referred the question back to his government for consideration. Canada also will be approached on the subject, with the object being culmination of the combined trade-war debt agreement with the United States, possibly by autumn of this year.

German Planes Fly Over Polish Land

LONDON, June 10 (INS)—German planes have crossed over Polish territory five times this month, the London Daily Telegraph said today in a report quoting a Warsaw newspaper.

According to the Telegraph, the Warsaw story said: "It is understood that military observers state importance can be attached to what is described as a 'large concentration' of German fighting planes close to the western frontier of Poland."

Phantom Flier Bombs Spain Cities

MADRID, June 10 (AP)

— A lone insurgent air raider, flying an Italian-made Savoia seaplane, again bombed Alicante, Denia and the British-owned port of Gandia today.

The British freighter Thorpehall, which was bombed three days ago at Alicante, again was struck and started sinking stern first.

The civilian section of Alicante, which previously had suffered one of the worst bombardments of the war, again was battered.

At Gandia the "phantom" raider, repeating his practice of striking about midnight, destroyed the main storehouse of the British-owned port and sank a small Spanish coastal schooner.

At Denia, he returned to the attack on the French freighter Brisbane and dropped two bombs aboard the crippled ship.

The Brisbane, which had been smoldering on the beach since incendiary bombs set her ablaze yesterday, filled rapidly and settled to the bottom.

The two-masted schooner sunk today was of Spanish registry. The plane dropped six bombs.

While Gandia port workers still were cleaning up the wreckage U. S. destroyer 140 steamed into the harbor to take Vice-Consul Lee Worley to Paris for an emergency appendectomy.

Cambridge Man In Jap War Peril

PEIPING, June 10 (AP)—Japanese reports said today Dr. Theodore Greene, a Presbyterian missionary stationed in Tsinan, Shantung Province, had left for Tientsin to investigate the condition of Dr. Frederick G. Scovel, American missionary, reported wounded by Japanese soldiers.

Dr. Greene of Cambridge, Mass., is a Harvard graduate. Dr. Scovel of Cortland, N. Y., was said to have been protecting mission hospital nurses from the soldiers when he was shot.

(Reports of the shooting brought an American protest to the Japanese consul-general at Tsinan, China.)

Dr. Scovel's mother, wife and three children, all reported with him, were believed to be safe.

Britain, France Angry

Ban Spain Ship Raids

LONDON, June 10 (AP)

— Britain, fully backed by France and tired of shooting protests into Burgos pigeonholes, concentrated today on finding drastic but practical means of stopping the Spanish Insurgents' deadly air raids on Anglo-French shipping.

Georges Bonnet, French

foreign minister, was reported to have told Sir Eric Phipps, British ambassador, France was willing to cooperate with London in "extreme measures" to end the Mediterranean scourge of lead and steel which has sunk or damaged at least 15 neutral ships in two weeks.

Sir Eric was believed to have reported to London that Bonnet was outraged by the savage attack yesterday on the French freighter Brisbane at Denia, in which seven persons were killed and eight wounded.

ATTACKS AROUSE IRE

Britishers were exasperated by the series of attacks reported yesterday—the machine-gunning of the British freighter Searay when a lone insurgent plane bombed and destroyed much of the British-owned port of Gandia Wednesday, the wrecking of the British freighter Isadora off Castellon de la Plana and the attack reported by the Spanish government on an unidentified ship off Benicassim, with a loss of 12 killed and 18 wounded.

Japs Bomb Only Canton Fringes

HONGKONG, June 10 (AP)—

Japanese bombing planes tonight pounded out two weeks of daily bombardments of Canton or its environs with an attack on the outskirts of the teeming South China metropolis.

The raiders withheld their bombs when they passed over congested areas but the distant thunder of bombardment showed they attacked the fringes of Canton where the waterworks and other utilities plants are located.

YOUNG RASKOB

Love

On Rocks Of Reno

A romance which surmounted contrasting creeds and fortunes, today ended in a Reno separation for the Jewish bride of John J. Raskob, Jr., eldest son of one of America's wealthiest Catholic laymen.

The former Minerva Aaronson, 27, who married the scion of General Motors and du Pont millions at North Chelmsford in 1930, admitted that a separation agreement existed between herself and her 31-year-old husband.

She denied, however, either she or her husband have sought out-right divorce. Raskob arrived in Reno several days after his wife.

The couple were married by the Rev. Joseph A. Curtin in the rectory of St. John's Catholic Church on December 12, 1930. They lived in North Chelmsford, Shawheen Village and in Cambridge in the years of their early happily married life.

Raskob met Miss Aaronson, daughter of a Russian-born New Haven attorney, while he was a student at Yale. Later, when he came to North Chelmsford to experiment with synthetic linen, he brought the New Haven typist there for a marriage ceremony, after which they lived simply in two rented rooms.

The young husband's father is a former chairman of the Democratic national committee and has been decorated by the Pope.

PERCY, ANNE CLARK'S PET, REHEARSES FOR DAY I'll Crash the Gate

Anne and John Ban Rule for Formal Garb

By MARJORIE MCBRIDE

Fashion scouts at the wedding of Anne Lindsay Clark and John Roosevelt will be treated to a rare sight.

There'll be no "required dress" at the nuptials, John and Anne agreed today, and there's a chance that clothes will range from slacks and sweaters to formal diplomatic regalia.

The ladies, of course, are bound to dress up for the important June 18 nuptials, but as far as John is concerned, his friends may attend "as they are."

Several of John's Harvard classmates revealed that they haven't seen their tailors about the proper dress. They plan to wear dark coats and light trousers. A few, who have startled society before by appearing in picnic clothes, said they were going to the wedding in campus costumes.

EUROPE MUST WAIT

Oldsters are bound to don morning suits and their ladies will be the height of fashion. Representatives of the Army and Navy, coming with the President from Washington, will wear the dress uniforms of their stations.

Anne and John's European honeymoon plans have been postponed with the decision of the President's son to serve as an usher at the wedding of his Harvard classmate, Marshall Field, Jr. Field, to be an usher at the Clark-Roosevelt wedding at Nahant on June 18, will himself be married two days later to Joanne Bass, daughter of a former New Hampshire governor, at Union Church, East Walpole.

Both prospective bridegrooms have just been graduated from Harvard. Field is the grandson of the Chicago department store founder and met his bride-to-be in Boston this winter.

Meanwhile, at Nahant, all plans

'Anne, I'll Be There'

If the gate can be crashed at the Anne Clark-John Roosevelt wedding, Percy will crash it.

For he's just got to be present when the two swellest people in his whole world have their big moment before the minister.

Otherwise, he'll be the saddest dachshund this side of Germany.

Percy used to be a "one-girl" dog. But that was before his adored mistress, Anne Lindsay Clark, fell in love with President Roosevelt's youngest son.

HE'LL BE THERE

It wasn't long before Percy saw clearly that he'd have to find room in his small but loyal heart for John Roosevelt as well as Anne.

That made Percy a "one-girl, one-boy" dog.

And you don't know Percy if you think he's going to be out in Mrs. F. Haven Clark's Nahant garden digging for a bone when the old, old story of boy-gets-girl is enacted to church music, with his John and his Anne in principal roles.

Percy has the advantage, of course, of being the kind of dog sometimes colloquially described as having been "brought up under a bureau."

WISE LITTLE DOG

Those fast-moving little legs of his can whisk him unobtrusively into places where he hasn't been invited.

In fact, he has lately acquired a habit of sitting and looking at John Roosevelt and Anne with an all-knowing expression which seems to hint that he's seen and heard plenty he isn't discussing.

So if you happen to be a betting person don't be afraid to give odds that Percy will be well within earshot when the organ swings into "Here Comes the Bride."

It'll be a mighty vigilant and valiant G-man who halts Percy to ask him for his wedding ticket.

And as for Nahant police and Clark family servants, why they'd no sooner interfere with Percy's comings and goings than they would with President Roosevelt's.

They respect the President. But Percy is their pal.

Report Duke To Visit U. S.

LONDON, June 10 (INS)—A columnist for the London Daily Express said in today's paper that the Duke and Duchess of Windsor "are again planning to visit the United States, probably next spring." It was learned here.

The columnist is William Hickey, who writes daily of "personalities in the news."

However, a London source close to the Duke denied the columnist's report. Edward would like eventually to visit the United States, but it is not true he has definite plans, and certainly none for a visit next spring, this source said.

Gift Job Probe Hit as Illegal

Charge that the legislative committee investigation of "gift jobs" under the State Unemployment Compensation Commission is "an illegal hearing, anyway," today featured one of several clashes when the hearing resumed.

The charge was flung by Attorney Samuel Weiner of counsel for the UCC during protest over admission of a carbon copy of a letter complaining of delay in receipt of compensation checks from the Lynn office.

Today's session was the first since the Legislature last week extended the time for the investigating committee report from June 1 to December 1 and allowed the committee $3000 additional expense money.

ONLY TWO ATTEND

Conflict came when only two of the seven committeemen appeared and the hearing was announced as opened. They were the chairman, Senator Angier Goodwin, Melrose, and Representative Philip G. Bowler, Brookline, both Republicans.

Absentees were Senator Eugene Giroux, Democrat, Somerville; Representatives John F. Aspell, Roxbury, Democratic House floor leader; William H. Kirkpatrick, Republican, Holyoke; Joseph N. Roach, Democrat, North Adams; and Christian A. Herter, Jr., Back Bay, Republican floor leader.

Attorney Weiner objected to proceeding without a committee quorum and said he had a verbal opinion from Attorney-General Dever that the committee had no right to proceed without a quorum. He was overruled by Goodwin and Bowler, who said an opinion was worthless unless in writing.

TELLS OF DELAYS

The first witness was William J. Barry, 184 Chestnut street, Lynn, secretary of the Lynn Joint Council, United Shoe Workers of America, a CIO organization.

Asked by Warren Patten, committee counsel, to describe his experiences in trying to get benefits checks from the UCC, Barry testified that he had waited seven to nine weeks for checks.

Benjamin E. Wait, Tudor street, Lynn, member of the Lynn Joint Council, testified that in one Lynn factory alone, checks to between 300 and 400 unemployed were delayed from seven to eight weeks. Some of the men, home owners, were forced to pay additional interest on their mortgages as a result, Wait said.

Roosevelt Asks Dies Bill Passage In Senate

WASHINGTON, June 10 (INS)

President Roosevelt has told Senate leaders he wants the Dies House alien deportation bill passed by Congress before adjournment.

The measure passed the House last year and has been on the Senate calendar since. President Roosevelt made known his views in a letter to Senate Majority Leader Barkley. It became known today.

The measure would authorize the deportation of all aliens convicted of crimes, particularly smugglers, peddlers of narcotics and aliens convicted of carrying concealed weapons.

N. Y. Port Authority Pay Tax Stayed

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP)—Justice Owen J. Roberts has signed a stay of the Supreme Court's May 23 decision permitting the federal government to collect income taxes from officials of the New York Port Authority.

Solicitor-General Robert H. Jackson and Austin Tobin, counsel for the authority, said the effect of the order would be to retain the tax litigation until the justices can rule next fall on the authority's petition for a rehearing.

South Claims Wage Victory

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP)—Southern Senators claimed victory today in their year-long battle to give Dixie lower minimum wages than the industrial North.

They expressed certainty a Senate-House committee would approve broad exemptions from a 40-cent-an-hour wage scale which the pending legislation would establish after seven years.

The committee had voted earlier this week to except only industries in which such a minimum would result in unemployment.

The Southerners, after threatening a Senate filibuster, forced the committee yesterday to reopen the question. They want living costs, prevailing wages and comparative freight rates added to the causes for exemptions.

Although the southern committeemen—Senators Pepper (D.), Florida, and Ellender (D.), Louisiana, predicted a quick agreement, some members voiced a doubt that the group ever could draft a satisfactory bill.

After a week of lengthy sessions in which one compromise proposal after another was rejected, the conference committee had little to show for its efforts. It had settled only one issue definitely—that the "bedrock" minimum wage shall be 25 cents an hour. No exemptions would be permitted from that figure. The Southerners said they would accept a clause which would increase the minimum to 30 cents the second year.

After that, boards would be created in each industry to advance the basic wage to 40 cents an hour and lower the hour maximum to 40 a week as rapidly as possible.

These boards could grant exemptions, the extent of which provided the biggest problem still before the committee.

The Southerners admitted that their list of exemptions would emasculate the seven-year clause in the 40-cent wage provision.

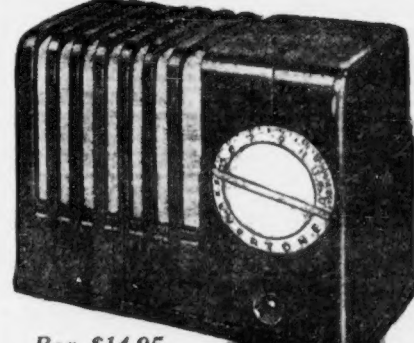

Senator Walsh (D.), of Massachusetts, said that a compromise which would permit the boards to make allowances for the size of industrial units, granting a low minimum wage to smaller plants, had been suggested to the conferees.

Relief Probe O. K. With Deal

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP)—Democratic Senators advocating a senatorial inquiry into any complaints of "politics in relief" said today the administration would accept their proposal.

They declared an amendment by Senator McAdoo (D.) of California, to include a study of state use of federal social security and highway funds had made it acceptable to the President's congressional lieutenants.

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, Democratic floor leader, declined comment. He said he had not discussed the proposal during a White House call yesterday.

Attempts to restrict political activities of WPA administrative employees failed in the Senate last week after Barkley contended they would prevent freedom of expression by federal workers yet leave state workers free "to go out and electioneer."

Barkley is running for renomination against Gov. A. B. Chandler of Kentucky, whose campaign aides charged recently that WPA rules against political activity were being violated.

George H. Goodman, Kentucky WPA administrator, said he had investigated seven alleged instances of political coercion of WPA workers and found none was substantiated.

Aubrey Williams, federal deputy WPA administrator, instructed Goodman to continue the inquiry until facts in all complaints had been determined.

President Roosevelt will speak July 8 at Covington, Ky., during a trip to the west coast, and it is generally expected that he will laud Barkley's work as Senate leader.

Administration supporters also expressed the belief the Chief Executive would find occasion for kind words about favored Democratic candidates at other stops in his transcontinental journey.

Probers Speed PWA Projects

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP)—The Public Works Administration decided today to assign federal inspectors to speed up all projects under the new $1,365,000,000 PWA program.

"PWA is on trial," said Acting Administrator Howard Gray, "and we have adopted this innovation to put over the heaviest schedule of non-federal projects in the shortest time ever allotted for a public works program."

The inspectors, Gray said, will be chosen from experienced PWA engineers and each will be given from 10 to 30 projects. They will make sure that applicants (usually municipalities) do not delay in financing 55 per cent of the construction cost, in meeting specifications, and in letting contracts.

'I'll Be Back,' Vows Jenks as He Quits House

Deprived of his seat in Congress, Representative Arthur B. Jenks, 79, retired New Hampshire shoe manufacturer today was on his way home from Washington planning to seek vindication at the polls next fall.

Jenks announced he would be a candidate against Alphonse Roy, Manchester Democrat, who the House seated yesterday after a long and complicated controversy. The vote in Roy's favor was 226 to 109.

Under the law, Roy now will get his full $10,000-a-year salary, although Jenks has held the post at Washington for a year.

Jenks originally was declared the victor by 560 votes but a recount demanded by Roy resulted in a tie, the first in 119 years in New Hampshire. A total of 34 missing votes in the town of Newton proved the bone of contention, the state Legislature finally awarding the seat to Jenks.

The ouster of Jenks and seating of Roy was accompanied by several dramatic episodes. As Republicans sensed the first ballot would result in Jenks' ouster, they left the chamber one by one.

Then, as the outcome was announced, Democrats arose to give Jenks an unexpected outburst of applause.

$5000 Firebug Loss in Medford

A two-alarm fire, believed to have been incendiary, drove two families from a Forest street, Medford, home today and imperilled a residential neighborhood. Apparatus from Arlington and Somerville helped fight the blaze, which did damage of more than $5000.

Police said the fire was apparently set by a pyromaniac who has been at work in Medford for two months. The half dozen previous blazes, attributed to him, were in non-residential sections. Today's fire started in a combination barn and garage, off Forest street near Water street, then spread to the home occupied by Mrs. Charlotte Grover and the family of Dr. W. A. Rottenberg.

The flames spread to an empty garage off Ashland street, in the rear of a house occupied by Mrs. Josephine Kintz.

Wragg Enters Sheriff Race

Senator Samuel H. Wragg, president of the state Senate, today announced his candidacy for sheriff of Norfolk County to succeed Sheriff Samuel H. Capen, whose term expires this year.

In a formal statement, the Needham senator explained that he was making the announcement at this time to correct reports that he "was considering a run for lieutenant-governor."

"It had been my intention to defer formal announcement until after the prorogation of the Legislature, but delay in prorogation, which may be attributed properly to a source other than the General Court, has afforded opportunity for the spreading of inaccurate accounts of my future plans in public life," the statement read.

"In fairness to the many friends who have pledged themselves to support me as a candidate for sheriff, I feel that I should remove all question of doubt by stating emphatically that I am a candidate for sheriff and not for any other office."

Warner Backs Saltonstall

Joseph E. Warner, former attorney general and a candidate for governor at the Republican convention two years ago, today announced his support of Leverett Saltonstall for the Republican nomination for governor this year.

He described Saltonstall as "sincere and able" and predicted that he would fight "for the protection of the rights of the people from a financial, economical and political domination."

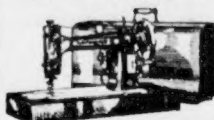

Commenting on the Warner endorsement, Saltonstall said:

"I give my warmest thanks to Warner for joining me in my fight for better times in Massachusetts."

"The constantly increasing support I am receiving convinces me that the people are demanding a change on Beacon Hill."

Morgan Emphatic

NEW YORK, June 10 (AP).—J. P. Morgan, multimillionaire banker, said his opinion on business and politics "isn't worth a damn."

His deprecatory remark was made in a cloakroom after he handed out 128 diplomas at commencement exercises of Cooper Union.

"What do you think of the chances to succeed these grads have as compared with other days," he was asked.

"Now, you know I don't talk about those things," Morgan countered.

"Why is it that you refuse to express an opinion on business and politics?"

"Because I don't think my opinion is worth a damn," he replied.

Like Fascism,
Says Tufts HeadConditions in the United States correspond to those in European countries during the early stages of the Fascist movement, Professor George S. Miller, acting president of Tufts College, declared today in an address to the senior class in Goddard Chapel.Professor Miller based his declaration on the double charge that here, as in Europe, the government had undermined confidence in the courts, in banks and in business; that the executive department in Washington had punished legislators who chose to think for themselves."Communism developed," Professor Miller said, "with a frankly avowed purpose of overthrowing the existing order. Fascism developed on the pretense of guaranteeing security, and its leaders have maintained that it is a democratic form of government.""The government took a step in the direction of Fascism when it undertook to undermine confidence in the courts, in banks

ment undertakes to punish legisbeen taken in the direction of Fascism.""And this is being done, not in the name of dictatorship, but in the name of democracy, and it corresponds to the early stages of Fascism as it developed in Europe."

Bay State Bankers Told:

'Cities Facing Money Crisis'

Excesses, waste and follies in state and local government threaten Massachusetts municipalities with financial catastrophe, in the opinion of Norman MacDonald, executive director of the Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers' Association.

The Bay State taxpayers' spokesman voiced his prediction today before more than 400 members of the Massachusetts Bankers' Association, gathered for their annual two-day convention at the New Ocean House, Swampscott.

"The plain fact is," MacDonald said, "that many industrial communities are and have been operating with annual deficits. They are spending, every year, more money than they can collect."

CANT SAY 'NO'

"For the first time, many Massachusetts communities, including some of our larger cities, are borrowing for current running expenditures."

"The spectacle of Boston issuing $7,000,000 in bonds to fund revenue loans it has been unable to meet, while not immediately alarming, is one clear symptom of an inherently unsound condition in which Boston by no means stands alone."

The taxpayers' executive director severely scored the constant demand of "organized, vocal and resourceful" minorities for governmental expansion and the "inherent legislative inability to say 'No' to these groups."

Domination of state and local government by the people was the remedy suggested by MacDonald for the ills he described.

"The issue is plain," he asserted, "whether we, the people, shall dominate the government, or whether its weaknesses, excesses, wastes and follies shall dominate and submerge us."

"We must do more than muster votes against expenditures. We must attack the foundation of bad government, which is public ignorance, misinformation and the sin of apathy."

Officers of the Massachusetts Bankers' Association are F. Winchester Denio, vice president First National Bank of Boston, president; George Avery White, president of the Worcester County Trust Company, vice president; H. L. Brett, cashier of the National Rockland Bank, Boston, treasurer, and John S. Gwinn, executive secretary.

Deport Crippled Father of Two

Forebly separated from his wife and two small children, Robert Watson, 43-year-old Newark, N. J., cripple, sailed as a deportee aboard the Anchor liner California.

According to immigration officials, Watson entered the country illegally ten years ago and for the past six years had been a public charge. He is being sent back to his home in Scotland.

Holm-Rose Love Path Half Clear

LOS ANGELES, June 10 (INS)—If Billy Rose, diminutive producer of colossal spectacles, and lovely Eleanor Holm still want to get married, the path to the altar was partly cleared today.

Art Jarrett, band leader and one obstruction to the romance that made red hot news last fall, divorced the former American Olympic swimming star.

The remaining obstacle is Rose's marriage to remedienne Fannie Brice, famous for her "My Man" lament.

Months ago the little producer urged Miss Brice, via newspaper interviews, to get a divorce. But Miss Brice to date has given no indication of relinquishing any or all claims to her man.

All the talk of a torrid romance between Rose and Miss Holm (of which nothing has been heard lately) was most embarrassing, the handsman testified, and caused him "great mental anguish."

Agency to Curb Reds Demanded

those of the American form of government, former American Legion Commander James L. Ross gave emphatic testimony.

"The people of Massachusetts must be awakened to the fact that a well-organized campaign is being carried on to overthrow the government of the Commonwealth and the nation and set up a Soviet America, ruled by a Communist dictator," he said.

SENATOR FROM RUSSIA

"Communist officials, under this dictatorship, would take their orders from the Third International in Russia.

"The American home is threatened as much as the American government. Our mothers and homes should be warned that Communist doctrine holds children are the property of the state, not the wards of their parents."

SENATOR SUBJ. H. HOLMES of Brookline, chairman of the special legislative commission which has been investigating subversive activities of Communists and kindred factions, outlined urgent need for passage of the state law of subversive activities by her commission.

EDUCATE CHILDREN

"Our children must be educated against the false and dangerous theories of Marxism and Leninism," she testified.

"And adult citizens must be informed of subversive influences at work to destroy the liberties and privileges we hold most dear."

"Most dangerous of these subversive influences now is Communism, because it is the best organized. Communists openly admit that 12 per cent of their members are aliens."

"Aims of rightist groups are as destructive as those of leftists, but it is the leftists who are gaining seriously in strength."

SENATOR HOLMES sharply attacked the Civil Liberties Committee of Massachusetts and its leader, Roger Baldwin.

"He's for dictatorship in this country and has so stated," she testified.

"The very name of the Civil Liberties Committee is a misnomer."

VICIOUS ATTEMPT

"Criticism publicly directed at our commission by the C. L. B. is a vicious attempt to deceive."

Representative Philip Sherman of Somerville, vice chairman of the probe commission, testified that the principal function of the proposed legislation would be to investigate subversive activities of Communists and kindred factions and report them to the state department or the federal department for investigation.

"We do not feel," he said, "that such investigation is left in the hands of the federal intelligence department or be put in the hands of police."

"This is no witch hunt!"

"But if there are any groups or organizations in Massachusetts which have for their purpose overthrow of our government and institutions—and we believe there are—these should be kept under constant surveillance of some branch of the government."

"And that is exactly what we propose to accomplish by the bill, now under consideration."

$50,000 Fire At E. Boston Dock, 3 Hurt

Fire, for which four alarms were sounded, swept through a section of the Suffolk Coal Company dock, Border street, East Boston, today, causing injury to three persons and an estimated loss of $50,000.

The fire was one of the most spectacular in years. At one time the flames reached from the barge Mingo to the traveling crane, 75 feet above the dock, which was totally destroyed.

For a time it was feared that flying sparks and embers might ignite other wharves as firemen, aided by navy and privately owned tugs, fought the flames.

Those injured were Charles C. 65, of Camden, N. J., a stevedore on the barge; George C. an ambulance orderly; and Captain William Drynan of Engine 1. Olson was severely burned about hands, arms and face, when he attempted to save personal effects aboard the barge.

Orderly Carr received scalp, leg and knee injuries, while he was giving Olson first aid. Several stitches were taken in Carr's arm at City Hospital.

Captain Drynan's right arm was fractured when he was struck by a hose nozzle.

The fire started from some undetermined origin in the room on the dock and spread to the barge.

Smoke Cost Boy Graduation

In the principal office yesterday.

CIGHT SMOKING

The incident was reported when the "Gothrup" was loaded with three others in a car to the school, was seen smoking a cigarette by a teacher in the building.

"Because it was so near graduation I couldn't give the boy the customary two weeks' suspension," Principal Jenkins said, "and I said he couldn't graduate with his class."

"It was too strict a punishment," Mrs. Jordan, a member of the committee, said, voicing the feelings of many members of the community.

"It hurt the boy's family, who has been waiting four years to see him graduate. Mr. Jenkins is just trying to make up for last week's episode by this super discipline."

Several days ago when the principal refused to let girl pupils come to school in ankle socks, Mrs. Jordan referred to him as a "fuddy duddy." At the same time, she said he had not been fulfilling his duties when he let pupils present a play branded "irrelevant."

"The principals broke his word to me and to another member of the school committee, when he told us he would let the boy come to the graduation. Mrs. Jordan said."

Salads for Warm Summer Days

Meat salads may be divided into two groups: the "loss-up" variety and the "paired" one, and which you choose depends upon your preference and the time for preparation. Filled salads must be made several hours in advance so that they will become thoroughly chilled and set.

As to the choice of meats for salad, practically any kind of cooked meat may be used. Lettuce, never roast, chilled and dried, makes an excellent, but if some of this is on hand you may use the already cooked ham or roast beef or turkey which always are available at the market.

For quick, easy prepared dressing salad, here is a suggestion. Dice the meat into small cubes. Combine with an equal amount of chopped celery and apple. Season with salt and pepper and mix thoroughly with dressing. Serve in lettuce cups. Sprinkle with paprika for color.

THE SALAD GREENS

There is a serious lack of knowledge about water control in general, and too often if perfect control is desired, no support whatever from the masses of the so-called educated party is to be expected. And the only way to win. After we have placed the masses in a position where we need not them, they will take to us, and then they will be the masses of the revolution.

YOU CAN BE BEAUTIFUL

Waterproof Sun Bronze Makeup Glorifies Skin, Covers Blemishes

By ARTHUR GOLD

AN OUT-OF-SEASON fan is a symbol of the better things in life . . . if you like to look as though you were in the yacht class, though your boat and Judge Puffin's are brothers under the deck planks . . . display a flattering bronzed glow long before the rest of the crowd has had time to acquire an out-door look.

YET, I CAN'T REMEMBER ANYTHING about the day I was born. I only remember the first time I stepped out of the hospital and into the world. I was a little boy, and I was so proud of my new body that I went to wash off my hands in the sink at the home.

Over the years, I grew up, and the other kids at school were always teasing me about my "big" body. I was a little bit of a loner, and I was always the last one to be picked for a game.

Then, one day, I was in the gym, and I was with a group of boys. They were all laughing and talking, and I was just standing there, feeling out of place.

Then, one of the boys said, "Hey, look at that guy. He's so big, he's gonna break the record." I was a little bit of a loner, and I was always the last one to be picked for a game.

The make-up is much more than a clever disguise: it actually is a perfect cover-up for blemishes and gives indifferent textured skin a glamorous velvet smooth finish. Which makes it something rarely precious to know about.

BACK BINGHAM

The committee, the editorial said, has not yet been formed, but it is expected that it will be formed in the near future. The committee will be responsible for the selection of the athletes who will represent the United States at the 1940 Olympic Games in London.

A list of fine sportsmen are on the committee, the editorial said, but they tend to be allowed out of control by the politicians, wire pullers and promoters.

GAMES TOO LARGE

The games are slipping out of the hands of those interested in sports for their own sake. The primary source of evil in the present set-up of the Olympics is that the games are too large. The trouble is that there are too many events, including many like women's sports that have no real justification for inclusion, and many like architecture, which Germany brought in at the last minute to win points.

Sports Mirror

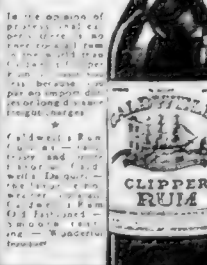

Today a year ago — Red Sox traded Ferrell brothers, Wes and Rick, and outfielder Mel Almada to Washington for Buck Newsom and Ben Chapman.

Three years ago — Yale confirmed appointment of Kenneth A. Loeffler, Geneva College, as new basketball coach, succeeding Elmer Ripley.

Five years ago — Johnny Goodman, 25-year-old Omaha amateur, won U. S. Open golf championship with 267, beating Halpa Guldahl by one stroke.

BEST BET—WILFUL, NINTH RACE

Wilful, which has lost only one start this season, and that by a bad break, looks like a lead pipe cinch in the ninth race at Wonderland Park tonight and shapes up as the best bet of the meeting to date.

Interest, though, centers on the sensational young "pup" Arthur Duffey, which is unfatigued and is moving up to his first future race.

The two are only to be anywhere near the leaders rounding the turn, and he should pop home on top despite the fact that he is fairly treated and has few company.

Wilson Picks Six Winners at Agawam

Agawam Park, nestled in the foothills of the Berkshires, had the biggest payoff winner in the history of Massachusetts horse racing, when Genwick won the first race and paid $394.85.

Disregarding that longshot winner, Dave Wilson, ace handicapper of the Boston Evening American and Sunday Advertiser, picked six winners and one second out of the eight race card.

Selection of six winners and one second is a true example of the Wilson knowledge of horse racing. Although far from the scene of the actual racing, Dave's keen, accurate judgment of the horses running at Agawam Park is the final test of his ability to pick winners.

Good Dame, winner of the second race at Agawam, was Dave's first winner, and paid $5.00 straight. Good Dame combined with Genwick in the daily double returned $3971.

DAVE WILSON

Sally Quick ran true to her name and won the third race to return $6.00 on the nose.

Play Dis, a hunch bet, topped the fifth heat and paid $3.80.

Deserter, Wilson's best bet, annexed the sixth and paid $4.40.

Can Bloom, winner of the seventh, paid the juicy price of $12.50. Morun won the nightcap and completed Dave's sextet of winners. Morun paid $4.80.

Choice Goods, Wilson's top choice in the first race, had to be content with second money when Genwick, the unexpected longshot was the winner.

Follow Dave Wilson's comments and graded handicaps at Agawam Park and Suffolk Downs. Dave's choices appear in the Boston Evening American and Sunday Advertiser. Let "Win-With-Wilson" become your racing slogan.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 10

(AP)—Forced into the role of a spectator at the Wighman Cup matches by an arm injury, Helen Jacobs, Berkeley, Cal., veteran, today said she expected to be in shape for the all-England tennis championships starting here June 20.

Her arm still was in a sling when she came from the doctor's office this morning, but she told the Associated Press:

"They think they'll be able to get me ready for Wimbledon."

Also spectators at today's opening matches in the two-day cup series between the United States and Britain were Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy and Sir Samuel Hoare, Britain's home secretary.

Louis Easy Target For Sparring Mates

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., June 10 (AP)—Poor showings

by Joe Louis in his last two workouts have given Joe's managers nothing to cheer about, but no one seems worried in the heavyweight champion's camp.

After Joe had gone through a listless six-round drill yesterday the Louis board of strategy maintained that he is being brought along slowly for his title defense against Max Schmeling at Yankee Stadium, June 22.

Louis was slow afoot yesterday and apparently was easily hit by his sparring partners. Deacon Dixon of Philadelphia made him grunt with a left hook to the stomach, but when George Nicholson fired three hard rights to his head Louis nearly blocked them, giving his camp its only optimistic note of the day.

Spar Mate Praises Schmeling's Right

SPECULATOR, N. Y., June 10

(AP)—Max Schmeling's right hand, which once felled Joe Louis and turned the flustered upside down, is coming in for plenty of applause from fellows who ought to know—his sparring partners.

"He never gives any warning when he's going to let it go," said Al Albin yesterday, "but,

Scores Ace

On Fly Ball

ST. CHARLES, Mo., June 10 (AP)—Golf amateur Lyle Smith was not only proud today of his hole-in-one, but he boasted he made it the hard way.

The former University of Illinois athlete's ace didn't even touch the green on the 125-yard waterhole of the St. Charles course yesterday, explained his companions.

The ball landed, they asserted, in the cup on the fly, and was wedged there by the flag stick.

boy, it carries plenty of power. It's a straight right, too, and that makes it all the harder to guess."

Schmeling rested yesterday save for roadwork and won't box again until Saturday, when he will renew ringwork for his attempt to regain the heavyweight title against Joe Louis at Yankee Stadium June 22.

Fight Gate Cinch to Pass $1,000,000 Mark

Slim Chance for Yanks to Get Newsom

NEW YORK, June 10 (AP)—Jimmy Thompson's $2 did a lot of us wrong in the open, yesterday, but the guy will turn in one red hot round before the thing's over and you can bet on that.

TRADE DEADLINE

Baseball trading deadline nears. . . Cubs and Cards both want Mungo. . . Yanks would like Buck Newsom of the Browns but the chances are slim since St. Louis wants players rather than cash for the big South Carolinian. . . Brooklyn needs everything and will take anything. . . most of other clubs, particularly "Zinnzinnati," are content to go on with what they have rather than dig down in those jeans. . . The Reds are pretty well fixed as they are and will get better. . . Anyway, it looks like the races in both leagues will be closer than in years. . . Even New Yorkers have given up on a run-away for the Yanks.

JOE AFRAID!

A newspaper man just back from Speculator says Max Schmeling begged him to go up to Louis and ask: "Joe, are you afraid of Schmeling?" . . . Max bet Louis would jump, just as he did when the venerable "Deacon" Scott hit him in the breadbasket yesterday. . . Whitey Moore, Johnny Vander Meer, Paul Derringer and Lee Grissom, all of the Reds, led various minor leagues in strikeouts before crashing the big time. . . "Boer just pining away for go with Louis," says headline. . . We haven't heard that one since Max was training at Speculator for Joe several years back. . . Then went into the ring scared stiff. . . Schmeling and Louis are a cinch to pass the million dollar mark.

EYE GOOD YET

Lefty O'Doul, manager of the San Francisco Seals, who used to be known around the majors as the "man in the green suit," isn't as spry as he once was, but his batting eye is just as true. . . A few days ago Lefty went in as a pinch hitter and cracked out a homer. . . He did the same thing in the ninth inning of a game the next day. . . Nice going, Butch. . . After failing to make good with both the Cardinals and Cubs, Sammy Baugh released the following lecture: "I'll take football. . . There is more satisfaction and thrill in one five-yard gain against the Bears or Giants than in any baseball game I've ever been in". . . And he probably hopes the Cardinals and the Columbus Red Birds don't feel hurt.

GAMBLER'S FOLLY

Jimmy Kelly, Greenwich Village hot spot king and one of our best known gamblers, went for a cool $5000 in the first three games of the White Sox-Yankee series. . . He dropped $1600 on the opener and the balance in Wednesday's double bill. . . Jimmy went into his vault for reinforcements and came out with a roll that smelled like moth balls. . . John Sanford, the race horse breeder, takes his private pre along when he goes to Florida, each winter for a month or so of golf. . . One of his rules is never to play with anyone else.

War Admiral Here Tuesday

By Associated Press

War Admiral, unbeaten in his last 11 races, will make his next start in the $50,000 Massachusetts Handicap at Suffolk Downs June 26, according to the present plans of Owner Samuel D. Riddle and Trainer George Conway.

Following the Massachusetts race, the son of Man o' War will head west for one or two of Arlington Park's rich races in July. He'll be returned to Saratoga to run in the Saratoga Handicap and Saratoga Cup in August.

Conway will ship the Admiral and some 14 of his stablemates to Suffolk next Tuesday. He has hopes of starting his star in an overnight race, so he'll be at his best for the big handicap.

Wayne D. Wright, Rexburg, Idaho, veteran, has given second call on his services to W. S. Kilmer and will ride for the Einghamton and Virginia sportsman during the Delaware meeting, George D. Widener has first call on Wright.

While Mrs. Emil Denmark of Chicago was winning the feature race at Suffolk Downs yesterday, another Chicago-owned stable—the Nash Brothers Shandon Farm—clicked twice at Aqueduct. Lady Elgin carried the green and white silks home in the third to pay 6 to 1, and Gold Flag came through in the six and a half-furlong feature to pay 5 to 1.

Delaware Park got off to a good start as far as the pari mutuel machine was concerned. A total of $260,433 passed through the machines Wednesday as compared with $210,110 wagered on the first Wednesday at the inaugural meeting last year.

Bees Need Slugger; May Rely on West

CROSBY FIELD, CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 10—The scheduled game between the Boston Bees and the Reds this afternoon was rained out and will be played as a part of a double-header on July 19.

By WALTER KILEY

CINCINNATI, June 10—Oh, for just one real swatter, a Jimmy Foxx, for instance, to knock in those Bees runs which are daily left stranded on the mid-West bases.

As the Swarm opens with Bill McKechnie's Reds, the boys aren't bemoaning lack of base hits. But they are pining for someone to convert those hits into the runs spelling the difference between several of their defeats and victories.

Fickle fortune smiled on the Stengelmans throughout their recent home stay, a winning one. And it looked as though good things were in store when the club broke even in a two game series with the Cubs and won the opener at St. Louis.

But, since the road jinx which has hovered over the Bees for many long seasons has returned to haunt them. And now our Bostonians are sitting on a keg of dynamite as Willie McKechnie their former Beehive manager, prepares a royal reception.

Our visiting forces have won three and lost five of eight road games and in order to gain the goal of breaking even, before returning home a 500 clip, must turn in the ambitious program of sweeping the Red series.

And such accomplishments appear the more difficult without the heavy stickler who can clean the bases, or at least deliver the timely wallop when the stakes are highest.

Tony Cuccinello might do it were he hitting. But Tony's bat has been strangely silent during the recent three games losing streak.

Perhaps Max West may be the answer. Something drastic in the nature of a shakeup looks to be imminent.

Beat Yanks 3 Out of 5 This Week

Peppery Jimmy Dykes brings his twily but always dangerous Chicago White Sox to the Fens this afternoon to engage the surging second-place Red Sox in a four-game series, including the first Sunday double-header of the season.

The Pale Hose, greatly handicapped by injuries all season, are down in seventh place but they come here direct from having taken three out of five games from the naughty Yanks in New York, which means they can't be taken lightly.

The home Hose, however, didn't need that proof.

They learned the folly of considering the crippled Chisox pushovers on their last visit to Chicago.

Entering the Windy City with eight straight victories to their credit, the Croninmen were cooled off by two days of rain, and then not only had their win string snapped but also suffered their first shutout of the year, with Johnny Whitehead doing the whitewashing.

So, to over, that setback so meet the Back Bay boys that they could win only three out of 12 games on the trip which started that gloomy afternoon at Comiskey Park.

These Sox rivals, by the way, have had a device of a time getting together this year. They got in only one of two scheduled tilts when the Dykes Demons were here and played only one of three carded contests in the Windy City.

When here before, the Chisox minus the services of Luke Appling, Monte Stratton, Joe Kuhel, Minter Hayes and Clint Brown and last their only start.

Dean on Shelf Indefinitely

CHICAGO, June 10 (INS)—Dizzy Dean's $279,000 pitching arm was on the blink again today—a one-month rest having failed to cure the deltoid muscle inflammation of the recently-acquired Cub hurler.

Charlie Grimm, manager of the Chicago team, announced that Dean, who was bought from the St. Louis Cardinals, will go back to the rest cure, which means no throwing of any kind.

After his last arm setback, the great Dix didn't throw a ball from May 3 until May 18.

Andy Callahan, 145-pound Lawrence, Mass., veteran pugilist, won a unanimous decision over Babe Synnot, 145, of Fall River, in the 10-round main bout held at the Casino tonight.

Callahan's vicious hooks sent Babe to the canvas and out of the ropes for a nine count in the second round. Andy also floored the Iowa boy in the following round with a left swing for another nine count.

Brine Shows Sox Trophies

The trophies to be presented by the "Sporting News" to James Brine and Leo Nonnenkamp of the Red Sox for being the outstanding 1927 players in the N. Y. P. and Southern Leagues, respectively, are now on display in the Summer street window of James W. Brine Company. These trophies will be presented at tomorrow's Red Sox game.

Reds Recall Infelder Lang

CINCINNATI, June 10 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds recalled Don Lang today from the Albany club of the Eastern League to fill the gap among utility infielders left by the trade of Alex Kampouris to the New York Giants.

Lang, a California native, trained with the Reds in the South this spring and was sent to Syracuse of the International League and then to Albany for seasoning.

Princeton Miler May Set Record

NEW YORK, June 10 (INS)—The fastest mile ever run by man—insofar as the clockers are concerned—may, and quite possibly will, be reeled off in Palmer Stadium at Princeton University on June 18.

Glenn Cunningham, the barrel-chested Ph. D. from Kansas, is authority for the statement, and will be in the field.

The mile race, feature of the annual and quite exclusive meet at Princeton, is made up of a field this time that includes Cunningham, Josef Mostert, of Belgium, would record-holder for three-quarters of a mile; Elaine Eldout, one of the Texas twins who keep on pestering people by winning one thing or another; Archie San Romani, the musical miler from Kansas, and Pete Bradley, of Princeton, who probably will windup down in the corner drug store with an ice cream soda.

ALL-STAR FIELD

The race will be decided by Cunningham, Mostert and San Romani, with any one of the three possible winner and any one of them potential manufacturer of a new world record for the distance.

San Romani, who plays musical instruments when he isn't running, beat Cunningham twice this year. Mostert recently ran the three-quarters in 3:00.4 to travel that distance faster than any other mortal that ever lived, and, like San Romani, should be able to make it quite intriguing for all concerned in a mile.

And what about Cunningham? Nothing much, except that in March on the Dartmouth track at Hanover, N. H., he ran the fastest mile ever clocked—a 4:04.4.

IMPROVES WITH AGE

This one hasn't been recognized yet and the 4:04.4 set by Stanley Wooderson, of England, still is in the books as long, but may not be for long. Track authorities have been prattling for the last two years of a four minute mile and agreeing that Cunningham may be the one to accomplish it. He can run, that Cunningham, and the older he gets the better he does it.

Encountered yesterday in mortar board and flowing gown in keeping with exercise establishing him as a PPH. D. at New York University, Cunningham said: "There is a good chance that the winner of the mile at Princeton will break Wooderson's 4:06.4 mile record."

Interpreting that, Cunningham was recalling that fastest mile that he ran at Hanover and the fact that the Princeton track is one of the fastest in the land.

A GREAT RUNNER

If anybody can crack it, he ought to be the one. The old man is 28 now and has been around a long time, running here and there, getting his bachelor of science degree in Kansas in 1934, his master's degree at Iowa in 1936, his Ph. D. degree yesterday—and through it all contributing some of the greatest foot races ever witnessed anywhere.

All in all, he's a great guy out there on the cinders or on the boards. He can run!

PAIEMENT RETIRES

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., June 10 (AP)—Don Paiement, second baseman of the Wilkes-Barre club of the Eastern League, was placed on the voluntary retired list because of a stomach ailment. He said he would return to his home in Brunswick, Me.

Foxx Certain To Play for All-Stars

By the Associated Press

Unless there's a major epidemic of broken legs, or train connections give out, Mr. James Emory Foxx will be doing the American League's first-basing chores in the All-Star game against the National League next month.

Jimmy's been in on the show before—in four of the five mid-summer classics—but never yet has he held down the first sack. Always he's been on the other corner, at third. This year, however, it's another story, what with Foxx taking the cover off the ball, Lou Gehrig amounting to just another ball player at the plate, and the rest of the opposition, with the possible exception of Hal Trosky, far behind Jimmy the wallpaper.

And when Jimmy travels to Cincinnati he'll probably have company all the way in old Mose (Lean Lefty) Grove.

Lefty is the big league's only 10-game winner so far this season, having reached that point in what looks like a 25-game year by blanking the Cleveland Indians, 8-0, yesterday.

Louis Zamperini Joins Trojan Team

LOS ANGELES, June 10 (AP)—Louis Zamperini, fastest distance runner in the Far West, leaves today to join the University of Southern California track team in the N. C. A. A. meet at Minneapolis next week.

Zamperini was dropped from the team last month when he failed to compete against Indiana's Don Lash in an invitational meet at Campton, Cal. He was reinstated yesterday upon the telegraphed request of Coach Dean Cromwell after he had finished final examinations.

Anti-Red Agency Demanded

A state agency is urgently needed in Massachusetts to "awaken the people to plots actually in progress against the American form of government and against the very existence of the American home," witnesses testified at a legislative hearing today.

The hearing, held before the joint House and Senate committee on state administration, continued the Commonwealth's drive against Communists and other subversive groups.

One Massachusetts organization's opposition to the anti-radical drive was characterized as "Communist-inspired" and "either consummate stupidity or a vicious attempt to deceive."

Supporting proposed legislation which would create a division of citizenship in the state department of education "for the purpose of eliminating activities of persons and organizations seeking over-

MIAMI, Fla., June 10—The young wife of Franklin Pierce McCall, Cash kidnap-murder figure, today abandoned him to the electric chair—and hoped he'd get it.

Her family made this disclosure as G-men and state authorities moved swiftly to indict her husband for both the kidnaping and murder of five-year-old Jimmy Cash whose body G-men recovered yesterday.

Her father, Joseph Hilliard of Princeton, said:

"She never expects to see her husband again. She is through with him.

"She wants and expects to see justice done.

"She knew nothing of his activities. It has been a terrible shock to her and to all the members of our family.

"The boy has ruined two families, his and mine, and we all want to see justice done."

Florida justice for kidnapers is electrocution.

Hilliard disclosed a dramatic face-to-face meeting between his daughter and her husband in the presence of the G-men.

McCall, he said, acknowledged to her his part in the atrocity. She is prostrated, Hilliard added. The meeting took place when
